Vienna, May 6, N. S.

YEsterday Morning at Ten of the Clock, the Empreſs Queen of Hungary and Bohemia was happily delivered of a third Archduke, who was baptized at Six in the Evening by the Pope's Nuncio, in the Chapel at Schonbrun, by the Name of Peter, Leopold, Joſeph, John, Anthony, Joachim, Pius, Gothard. The Czarina is Godmother, and Prince Charles of Lorraine aſſiſted at the Ceremony in her Czarian Majeſty's Stead.

Head Quarters at Shield, May 16, N. S. We have juſt received Accounts that Hulſt has ſurrendred, and that the Garriſon, which conſiſted of two Battalions, the Remains of three others, and two Squadrons of Naſſau's Dragoons, are all Priſoners of War, except the General himſelf, his two Aids de Camp, and 400 Men at his Choice.

Hague, May 16, N. S. This Day's Letters from Bruſſels bring Word, that Marſhal Saxe was gone the Thurſday before, at Five o'Clock in the Morning, for the Neighbourhood of Hulſt, to inſpect into the State of Things there; and that upon the Surrender of the Place he returned immediately to Bruſſels, where Marſhal Noailles was arrived, with the Abbé de la Villa, in their Way to Antwerp. Theſe Letters ſpeak of the French King's Arrival as certainly expected, but without fixing any Time. The French Army was ſtill in their Cantoonment. According to an Order of Battle of the French Army, printed at Ghent, it conſiſts of 247 Battalions, and 284 Squadrons, Lowendahl's and Clermont's Corps included. They write from Paris of the 12th, that Count Maurepas had ſent private Orders to all the Ports of France, to ſend up immediately a Liſt of all the Dutch Ships that are actually in them, or ſhall arrive there for the future. According to theſe Paris Letters, Genoa was not taken on the 1ſt Inſtant. The French were very much hindered in their deſigned Attack upon Fort St. Marguerite, by the Activity of the Britiſh Ships. The Letters received in France from the Eaſt Indies make heavy Complaints of the Conduct of M. Bourdonaye, who attacked Madras; and the French General there demands, that he may be brought to Juſtice. It is ſaid there will be an Account of this Miſunderſtanding between thoſe two Officers publiſh'd very ſoon. Yeſterday the Prince of Orange was introduced into the Aſſembly of the Province of Holland, and to the States General, where he took the uſual Oaths; he afterwards took his Seat in the Council of State, and in all the other Colleges; and upon his Introduction to each Aſſembly, delivered himſelf in Terms that have done his Highneſs very great Credit. It is not eaſy to deſcribe the Joy and Satisfaction of every Rank of People, which exceeds all Bounds. A Propoſition was made Yeſterday in the States General by the Province of Guelderland, for the Republick to take 30,000 Men into their Pay without Loſs of Time. The Prince of Orange is to ſet out for Zealand To-morrow Evening, where he will probably ſtay eight or ten Days. His Highneſs will be attended in this Voyage by M. Bentinck. This Evening Advice came that the States of Zealand have unanimouſly agreed to do Juſtice to the Prince, in re-eſtabliſhing him in the Poſſeſſion of the Marquiſates of Fluſhing and Terveer.

Fluſhing, May 16, N. S. Upon the 12th we received the News of the Capitulation of Hulſt. The Terms were, that General la Roque, with 400 Men, and three Field Pieces, ſhould be at Liberty to march out with military Honours, but that the reſt of the Garriſon ſhould remain Priſoners of War; the Inhabitants of the Place to preſerve their Properties and Religion. The Engliſh Troops under the Command of Lord John Murray, which, upon Sandberg being taken by the French, retreated to Welſhoorden, were attacked by a large Body of the Enemy before they could embark, but repulſed them. The three Battalions are now cantoon'd in South Beveland, at a ſmall Diſtance from each other, and Troops are daily arriving in that Iſland.

Fluſhing, May 18, N. S. Yeſterday we had ſeveral Reports, that the Town of Axel ſurrender'd to the French upon the 16th Inſtant, N. S. and were allowed to march out with the Honours of War, and this Day we have received a Confirmation thereof. Late laſt Night an Account arrived, that the Enemy had begun to paſs their armed Veſſels through the Sluices of Sas Van Ghent; that the Number of them was about 400; that they had a great Body of Troops on board; and that Part of the Veſſels were actually paſſing round the Iſland of Axel, in order to get out into the Scheld by the Paſſage called the Hellegat, and other ſmall Canals, as well as by the ordinary Channel from Sas and Biervliet, and that the firſt Attempt was to be made upon South Beveland. There are at preſent in this Iſland a large Body of regular Troops, and about 10000 Militia well armed and in good Spirits; and we are aſſured that in South Beveland there are 7000 regular Troops (the Britiſh Brigade included) and 12000 Militia in Arms. The Prince of Orange is expected this Day at Campveer, where it is ſuppoſed he will ſtay one Night, and be To-morrow at Middleburgh, to take his Oath and Seat in the Aſſembly of the States. Preparations are making every where for a grand Reception of his Highneſs. The following is a Tranſlation of a Reſolution taken by the States of this Province upon the 12th Inſtant.

Extract of the Regiſter of Reſolutions of the Lords the States of Zealand, May 12, N. S.

It is found good and agreed to order and command all Governors, Commanders, and Commanding Officers, as well by Sea as Land, of Towns, Forts, Batteries, Ships, and all other Perſons whatſoever, under the Command of their Noble Mightineſſes the Lords States of Zealand, as it is hereby ordered and commanded, to attack, ſeize, and bring in all Ships, as well in Harbour as out of the ſame, coming from the French Enemy's Harbours or Coaſts, and not being able to do that, to ſink or deſtroy them in the beſt Manner it ſhall be poſſible for them, and not to ſuffer them, under Pretence of any contrary Orders whatſoever, to navigate unmoleſted. To which End, an Extract of this Reſolution ſhall be ſent to the Voting Towns of the State, that each of them may make the proper Uſe thereof, and alſo to the Deputies of the Admiralty, deſiring them to give Notice thereof to the Chief and other Officers of the Sea; and likewiſe to all Commanding Officers, being under the Orders of their Noble Mightineſſes, that they conduct themſelves thereby.

Finally, Extract hereof ſhall be ſent to Mr. Michell, the Commodore of the Engliſh Ships and other Veſſels of War, deſiring him to ſend the like Orders to the Officers of the Ships under his Command, as well in, as out of Harbour, in order to do jointly to the Enemy all the Miſchief and Injury in their Power.

Agrees with the ſaid Regiſter.

Whitehall, May 8.

This Day a Meſſenger arrived from Mr. Villettes, his Majeſty's Miniſter at Turin, with Letters of the 5th Inſtant, N. S. giving an Account, that in Conſequence of the Meaſures concerted with the Imperial Miniſter there, a conſiderable Body of the King of Sardinia's Troops, with a Train of Artillery, &c. under the Command of Lieutenant General Count la Roque, were immediately to begin their March in order to join Count Schulemburg, and to aſſiſt in the Reduction of Genoa.

Whitehall, May 1, 1747.

It having been repreſented to his Majeſty, that in the Month of April laſt, three Anonymous Letters were wrote to Boothby, Eſq; at Aſhborn in the County of Derby, containing Treaſonable Expreſſions, and in the laſt of which he was threaten'd to have his Houſe ſet on Fire, if he did not lay Ten Guineas at the Floodgate Bridge; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing the ſaid Letters, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; as alſo a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1747.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to eſtabliſh certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: Theſe are to give Notice, that Copies of the ſaid Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at Chatham, Portſmouth, and Plymouth; as alſo with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerneſs; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinſale; where all ſuch Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpoſe. But ſuch Widows as live at too great a Diſtance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Thomas Riley Blanckley, at the Admiralty Office, who will ſend them all neceſſary Information. And the Governors of the ſaid Charity intending to diſtribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of Auguſt 1732, as well as to the Widows of thoſe who died ſince that Time, whoſe Circumſtances come within the Rules of the Eſtabliſhment, ſuch Monies as may be due to them on the 31ſt Day of May next; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do ſo as ſoon as poſſible; and that all ſuch Widows whoſe Claims have been already allowed, may ſend or bring to this Office, by the 31ſt of next Month, the Affidavit required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Penſion or Bounty.
